When Sofia lies in bed at night and closes her eyes, something magical happens: everything she imagines becomes real!

One time, Sofia made up a story about being a princess in a beautiful castle.

Another time, she was a wizard who brewed magic potions.

Tonight, her room changes into a sea with waves as high as the walls.

TONIGHT, SOFIA IS A PIRATE!

Suddenly, a large ship appears on the horizon with two high masts and sails that flap in the wind.

Sofia doesn't worry. She grabs a rope and swings herself aboard the ship.
"BOARD!" she screams.
